Welcome Back!

We hope everyone had a safe and fun winter break and came back rested and ready for a great 2010. There are a lot of exciting events at KSE this month, so be sure to check the calendar.

Don't Miss KSE's Family Math Night!

Please join us at the upcoming Family Math Night, being held on Thursday, January 14, from 6:00-8:00 p.m. Teachers in every grade will present strategies and activities that you can use to reinforce your students' curriculum at home. The first session is at 6:30 p.m.; the second session is at 7:00 p.m. After your session stop by the Media Center for some math bingo and a chance to win a book. There will be fun math games from KSE specialist teachers and Mathnasium (in the cafeteria). Dinner will be provided on a first come, first served basis from 6:00-6:20 p.m. Plus, every parent who attends can enter to win two Atlanta Hawks tickets! See you there.
